NEWS BULLETIN OF ANTI-RACIST ACTION • TORONTO

POVERTY FREE ZONE Fall 1998 #12

All summer long "squeegee kids" were systematically targeted in a campaign against Toronto's poor and homeless—Mayor Mel Lastman, Premier Mike Harris, and the police uniting to declare war on Toronto's street community. Some businesses have also targeted squeegeers, by calling the cops to complain about the "mess" outside their stores.

ARA, on the other hand, thanks squeegeers for helping to clean up Toronto in more ways than one...

squeegee vigilance on the streets has helped to keep downtown Toronto Nazi-free!

ARA-Toronto, along with the Ontario Coalition Against Poverty (OCAP) and squeegeers returned fire all summer long, sustaining a consistent stream of actions warning the scum in the seats of power to back off.

On July 11, ARA, OCAP and squeegeers held a Solidarity Squeegee on one of downtown Toronto's busiest corners and squeegee hot-spot, Queen and Spadina. Over 200 squeegeers and supporters cleaned windshields as several dozen cops looked on. Usually a location the cops favour for the harassment and arrest of squeegeers, one cop instead complied with our clean-up of downtown that hot July afternoon!

On July 14, a committee of city council rejected the anti-panhandling by-law. Within hours, police harassment of people on the streets stepped up. Since that time, police have arrested over 30 people that we know of, written up hundreds of tickets, woken people by kicking them, and have illegally searched and seized the property of people on the streets. In one incident, a police officer even shot the dog of a squeegee in the jaw!

ARA, OCAP and squeegeers have fought back by challenging tickets handed out for squeegeeing. As well, we have demonstrated in front of businesses hostile to squeegeers. The Lettieri Café, a the corner of Queen and Spadina, used to call the cops on squeegeers, but hasn't since we paid them a visit earlier this summer.

ARA, OCAP, Active Resistance and squeegeers mobilized for a huge street rally demanding that cops and politicians keep their Hands Off Street Youth! We planned to let cops and politicians know that the people of Toronto will give them no peace if they continue to employ the same violent and punitive measures—such as the anti-panhandling by-law—used across North American cities to clear the streets of the poor and homeless. On August 22, 1000 people came out for a boisterous, rowdy and militant march on Queen St. to 51

Division—a Metro Police division particularly harsh on street youth. Cops were out in full force, but kept their hands off demonstrators.

Harassment and arrest of squeegeers has simmered down a little since then, but the battle is not over. The city is yet to vote on the anti-panhandling by-law and the province is trying to invent more laws to hassle people struggling to survive on the streets. We'll be there with squeegeers to fight back against attempts to deny street youth a means to survive.

August 22 Rally & Demo

"Missionaries to the Preborn" is an American militant anti-abortion group with ties to the extreme right and the militia movement. So what are they doing in Ontario?

Seems like the local "mainstream" anti-abortion group, Campaign Life Coalition, has been inviting them up for conferences and protests over the past year or so. On July 10, ARA put them on notice that they won't be able to come to Toronto without resistance! We organized a protest when they tried to hold a picket outside of Queen's Park. 150 pro-choicers came out to tell these creeps to get out of our city.

ARA = Pro Choice!!

Why does ARA confront anti-choice fanatics?

Why confront Missionaries to the Preborn?

First of all, women can't be free unless they have full control over when they have kids. It's basic. Fascists always want to control women's reproduction. This means, on the one hand, limiting abortion and birth control for the "right women" and on the other hand, making it harder for the "wrong women" (poor, Black and Brown, disabled, Jewish etc.) to have kids. So we figure that supporting access to birth control, abortion, pre-natal care and health care in general is part of the anti-fascist struggle.

Also, there are lots of connections between the anti-abortion movement and the racist right. Matthew Trewhella is deep into the US Taxpayer's Party, which is like the political wing of the militia movement. Not all militias are openly racist, but many of them are! And they mostly support the idea that the US should be run according to Christian fundamentalist laws.

Here in Canada, many Campaign Life Coalition leaders and other anti-abortion activists have spoken out in defense of Holocaust deniers. Some has a history of involvement in the Klan or other white supremacist groups. When the Morgentaler Clinic was bombed here in Toronto in 1992, Heritage Front graffiti was painted on the wall across the street at the same time!

Finally, lots of people don't even know how much violence and harassment there is against abortion providers and women who want abortions in Canada. Because abortion is legal here, we think our battle is over. It's not. Three doctors have been shot and wounded in the past four years: Garson Romalis in Vancouver in 1994, Hugh Short in Ancaster (near Hamilton, Ontario) in 1995, and Jack Fainman in Winnipeg just last November, 1997.

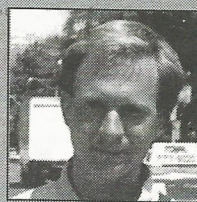

Just like the nazis, the anti-abortion militants take advantage of indifference to create a climate of fear. And just like the nazis, they should be confronted wherever they go!

MTP is based in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Most of their members have been charged or otherwise implicated in many acts of vandalism, violence, and intimidation – against people working at abortion clinics, volunteers, and women going to get abortions.

Perhaps most chillingly, MTP founder Matthew Trewhella was a signer of the so-called "Defensive Action" declaration released by anti-abortion militant Paul Hill, which said that the murder of an abortion doctor in Florida in 1993 was "justifiable".

On July 10, the cops seemed more concerned with us anti-racists than with these thugs, despite the fact that many of them have criminal records and shouldn't have been let into Canada in the first place. They busted 11 of us, mostly for blocking Queen's Park Circle when they wouldn't let us march anywhere. One youth was smashed right in the nose by a cop!

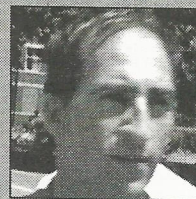

Here's a sample of the creeps who came:

Michael Foht:
Extensive criminal record.
A defendant on an injunction by abortion providers in Wisconsin.

Robert Arthur Rudnick:
A convicted felon. Well known for standing in front of clinics chanting for Jesus!

Mark Harry Gabriel:
A national leader of Operation Rescue.

BATTLING THE BIGOTS in Scarborough

rectly called "gypsies"). Seven boneheads were charged with "promoting hatred against an identifiable group" and their trial was supposed to start in September. ARA has slowly begun a campaign in Scarborough, where many of them live, to expose them to their communities and build resistance to them. On Sunday, September 20, we held small rallies outside the homes of two of the nazi pinheads, distributing 1000s of flyers to neighbours and reminding the fuckers that ARA is willing to come to their doorsteps... this is just the beginning! On September 23, we organized a rally outside the Scarborough courthouse as their trial was supposed to begin, with the support of the Ontario Coalition Against Poverty and the Campaign to Defend Immigrants and Refugees. Many people from the Roma community joined us at the rally, flying their flags and thanking us for sticking up for them. The trial was put off until next year, and we'll be back.

September 23 – excerpt from ARA's press statement at the Scarborough Courthouse

...Like many in Toronto, we were disgusted by the "protest" planned by these nazi creeps last August against the Roma refugees. For the Roma community to have to face such hatred from a group of neo-Nazis, precisely when they are seeking asylum to escape fascist violence, must have been the last thing they wanted.

Furthermore, ARA has been actively monitoring the various tendencies within the neo-Nazi movement in Toronto since 1992. The group of young fascists in court today is only the latest batch of them to come to the attention of the authorities, who are attempting to curtail their organizing by using the so-called "hate laws".

We resist the temptation to look at the issue of racism and hatred in our communities as strictly a law & order issue. We can not place all our faith in the "system" to take care of nazis. First, because mere imprisonment of nazis has not stopped the growth of fascists in Toronto in the past. This is because society does not end where prison walls begin, and the racists recruit behind the walls too.

Most importantly, we don't want to see a "hate crime" happen and a knee jerk reaction from the police afterwards. Only a community response can prevent the spread of neo-Nazi ideology among young and old, to stop the violence and intimidation before it happens, and to encourage people to look for real solutions to problems rather than to search out scapegoats.

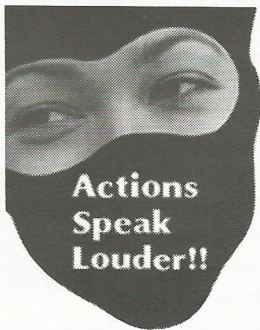

Alongside education and pro-active efforts to empower young people, we should exercise our right to give zero-tolerance for fascists in every aspects of our lives, be it in schools, neighborhoods, community centres, malls, public transit, etc. etc.. Confronting these creeps and challenging their presence in a direct way will, in the long run, prevent them from any organizing. To expose, oppose and confront them is the only viable tool for the community...

The recent murder of a Sikh elder in Surrey, British Columbia, by youth intimately involved in the neo-Nazi movement, clearly shows that we as a community should have acted a long time ago to stop these nazis from organizing. We won't make the mistake of ignoring them until they take another precious life. It's up to us in the community to break the indifference once and for all and organize ourselves against nazis.

ARA...

February 28 was a bad day for Montréal's Vinland Hammer Skins. They had been holding these secret "white power" concerts for over a year in Montreal without incident and the show that day was going to be the biggest one yet.

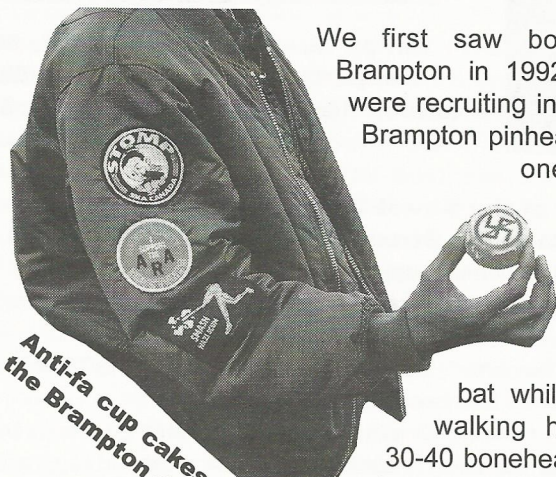

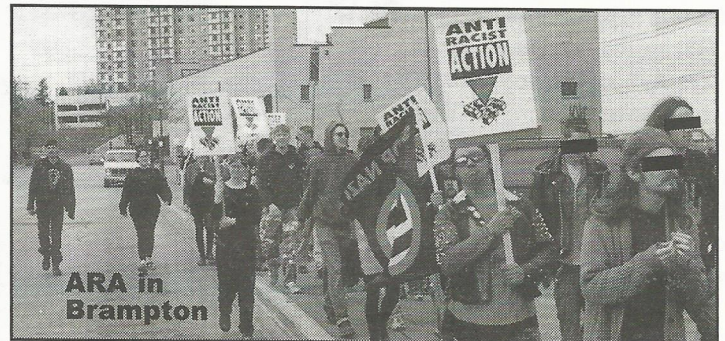

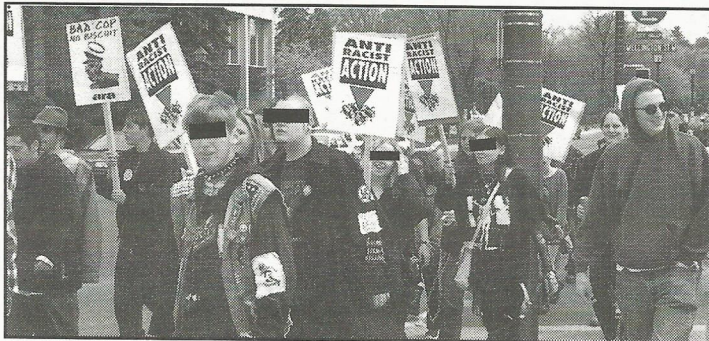

But when the zeroes showed up at Jolicoeur Metro to redirect concertgoers to the actual concert site, they ran into a problem... 175 pissed off anti-racists. ARA Montréal, hearing of the show from a spy deep in the ranks of the concert organizers, were there to "welcome" the racist pinheads, along with ARA'ers from seven other chapters and every anti-racist punk, skinhead, street youth and concerned citizens from the area.

The better part of the afternoon was spent chasing carloads of nazis out of the city. By 5:30 anti-racists were busy sending other boneheads scrambling from the metro station. The police called the riot squad. More nazis came in by metro trains and cars, and either ran off scared after being confronted by us or quickly accepted police protection in the utility closet. After the cops had "saved" half a dozen nazis (including at least two bawling boneheads), the police escorted them through a shower of spittle and into a waiting police van, chauffeuring them away from the neighbourhood. Other nazis who wisely got right back on the next train out all went home, according to the ARA'ers tailing them.

It was a TOTAL VICTORY for ARA and anti-racists everywhere and the local boneheads haven't dared to try to hold another concert since. See pictures of the pinheads and read their emailed "death threat" to ARA Montréal at: <http://welcome.to/aramontreal.com>.

Anti-fa cup cakes at the Brampton demo

We first saw boneheads in Brampton in 1992 when they were recruiting in the schools. Brampton pinheads have left one Bramalea area man paralyzed and have attacked two ARA'ers with a baseball bat while they were walking home. About 30-40 boneheads kicked in the door where anti-racists were attending a party.

As a new chapter, ARA-Brampton wanted to grab the community's attention; to do something to let the community—and the bonehead scum—know we're here and committed. On May 2, 1998, we held an anti-fascist picnic and march in downtown Brampton. We were protesting the violence and harassment perpetrated by the pinheads.

Almost 100 ARA'ers- including anti-racists from Toronto, Pickering, Kitchener-Waterloo, Mississauga Anti-Racist Skinheads and Oakville's Youth Against Hate- showed up. We marched around City Hall and up Main St., waving signs and making a lot of noise. Passersby hollered and honked to show their support.

The day was a success! No one was arrested and all the boneheads did was demonstrate their cowardice by trying to make fun of some mohawks from their cars.

Skank against hate

Well Well Well it was June 26 and time once again for another kick ass ska-bash courtesy of our good friends at ARA. The Elmo saw its usual fun-loving, fascist-fighting girls and boys enjoying newfound summer freedom—not to mention the craziest skankaholic bands from near and far served on a silver platter in the name of anti-fascists everywhere.

First on the menu, Project Charlie, the up and coming T.O. ska-core kids. They seem to have quite a following even this early in their career as a band, which really says something. Next was the Creepers, (from Buffalo) a band unknown to most it would be safe to say. But the crowd was jumpstarted with some prime rocksteady beats, not to mention a cover or two by classics like the Specials who seemed to be one of their prominent influences. Cheers kids.

Okay, the second someone says Arsenals, you know what you're in for, right? These mad rudies got us tearing up the dance floor, set us aflame and we begged for more, didn't we?! I don't think I could say much more about these boys without getting over-excited, so, on we go...

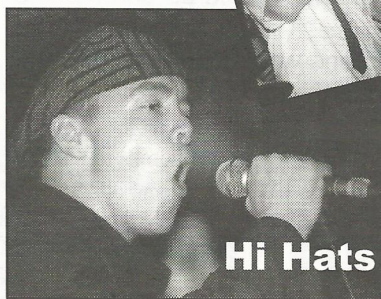

For those who survived for the final act... the Hi Hats from Boston U.S.A. was a pretty damn groovy band. Everyone left was on their feet chillin' to the reggae-ska beat.

As you would guess by this article, anyone who didn't make this show missed out LARGE. Tough shite, until next time suckers!

Birthday Bash

Spinecracker

On September 11, we celebrated our sixth birthday. Six years of helping to keep our streets nazi-free and fighting racism!!! And what better way to celebrate than some of the best bands out there. Much thanks go out to HooDRaT, Marilyn's Vitamins, Spinecracker and the Arsenals.

We had a great turnout and the show carried a good vibe.

HooDRaT got things under way and their aggressive '77 style punk rock really got the kids going. The Vitamins were up next and turned up the energy with their melodic politically charged anthems.

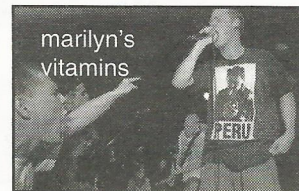

Our party just would not have been complete without some kick ass ska.

Spinecracker took the stage next and the place was jumping and skanking to the beat.

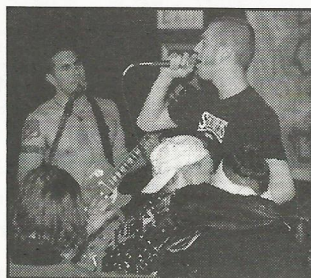

Last but definitely not least the place went skanking mad as the Arsenals blasted through their set.

Thanks to everyone who came out! We hope you had as much fun as we did!

Anti-Fascist Punk & Oi!

On April 18, we welcomed Montréal's Street Troopers (left) and London's Left Behind (above). They joined local acts SLORC, Stiffs, and Godzilla for a rousing show!

A quick review of the Street Troopers demo, "Take the Battle to the Streets"

This is the way Oi! is meant to be; loud, proud and straight from the working class. Street Troopers eight song demo comes through with a high energy attack that will surely get you stomping yer boots!

These four boot boys from Montreal have got it down tight. Their lyrics have a strong sense of Unity and Pride.

They break away from the Oi with the songs "Ska train", a sloppy but cool ska track, and "Jamaican Police" an excellent skinhead reggae number.

The songs, "Traitor", and "Oi! Against Racism" deliver a strong message that boneheads have no place among skinhead scenes and that racism in any level should not be tolerated. "Oi! Against Racism" in particular stresses the importance of standing together in the fight against racial prejudice because united we can win!

the Glory Stompers

ninesixnineseven

Reviewed by Andy Sociale

ninesixnineseven is the long-awaited release from homegrown Oi! boys the Glory Stompers. Two members of the Glory Stompers live in separate ends of Canada and the other resides in England, but this has not stopped these non-racist skinheads from occasionally getting together to record some top-notch punk rock.

The band has been stripped down to a three-piece and no longer has a female singer, and the Glory Stompers' musical style has evolved from old-school fast punk into straight-ahead classic Oi!. The music on this album is aggressive-yet-melodic street-punk with gruff vocals along the lines of the Templars, the 4-Skins, and the Oppressed. The songs on ninesixnineseven are catchy and the musicianship is tight, and it's good to hear another band using a clean guitar sound instead of getting bogged down in walls of distortion played at 100 miles an hour.

Lyricaly, the songs have traditional skinhead themes such as youth rebellion, camaraderie, drinking, violence, and the working-class experience. This is a bit of a departure from their previous material which was a more overtly political but it is a refreshing change from crusty-punk bands who spout simplistic slogans about anarchy and revolution, right-wing bands who bash commies and gays, and skate-punk bands who don't really sing about anything all.

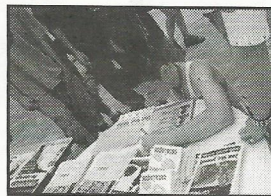

Look for the re-release of a Glory Stompers split E.P. with the Templars available soon, also on Germany's Knockout Records. The Templars are a multi-racial skinhead band from New York who are fast becoming one of the most popular Oi! bands in the world. Also, check out Glory Stompers drummer Ter singing in his other band, Toronto's Blatherskites. Support your local music scene!

warped!

Back in July, ARA rolled in to the dusty Docks as guests of Universal Concerts & Warped Tour organizers to set up a booth. This was our third year at the major show where we feel welcome and at home.

Thousands of kidz jammed the place to hear bands like Rancid, Bad Religion and NOFX.

Our booth was a hive of socializing and selling all day. A sea of youth sporting ARA gear showed that we've got what it takes to help create a hype and expressive antifa youth culture. Cheers to all the rude boys and girls who checked us out to say hi and express support and interest.

On a rather unusual note, a few boneheads did not get the message and came to mingle with this massive anti-racist audience. They were lost souls and of the white race anymore. But then a preppy looking bonehead was brave enough to ask us what's wrong with wearing a white-power T with the RaHoWa logo! His buddy threw the first punch but was quickly put to the ground by a single ARAer, as their "friends" tried to wade away into the crowd before the security dudes came up. One sad thing was that some of these security heavies don't understand that boneheads are the bad guys who create a volatile environment. They decided to kick out some of us for confronting the fash. Fortunately the concert organizers are well aware of the good shit we do and got us back in.

ARA folks noticed them right away. We got assurances from a group of former nazi skins that they don't believe in the supremacy

All and all, a fun day with a minor incident. The highlight of the day was when Rancid dedicated a song to ARA for taking a stand against nazis.

History of Oi!

Oi! Music, which is often described as street punk or reality punk, came into being sometime around 1978/79. By this time many of the original punk bands of '77 such as the sex Pistols and Generation X had either broken up or sold out to New Wave.

Bands such as Sham 69, Cocksparrer and the Cockney Rejects, however, would show the way and breathe new life into the punk rock scene. Sham 69, with top 10 singles such as Hurry Up Harry and Hersham Boys, inspired others with their short pub-rock style of sing-along choruses and soccer terrace chants. Some of the other original Oi! Bands were the 4-Skins, Angelic Upstarts, The Last Resort, and The Business. This catchy street punk sound appealed to a broad audience of punks, skins, herberts (regular folk) and football (soccer) hooligans.

Oi! is punk without the poseurs. The oi! scene is about working-class pride, and politics with a small "p". It's about "having a say and having a laugh" and is more concerned with what's going on in your own backyard than with what the extreme right or left have to say.

The media has at times tried to label Oi! music as hate-rock with a hard line racist following. Research would reveal, however, a lack of racist lyrics by these bands, and even multi-racial band line-ups in some cases. In fact, racist bonehead bands such as Skrewdriver maintained that they were not Oi bands, but rather just rock bands.

Today there are many bands who still carry the Oi banner such as The Templars (USA), Tension (Canada), Discocks (Japan), Oxymoron (Germany), Street Troopers (Canada) and Drop Kick Murphys (USA).

We will Remember You!

On July 4, 1988, the world lost two dedicated anti-fascist skinheads, Lin "Spit" Newborn and Daniel Shersty. Both were members of the newly formed ARA chapter in Las Vegas and the Unity Skins crew. All accounts say that they were targeted for their anti-racist activities by nazi boneheads. To date, one neo-nazi has been charged with a first degree murder.

This is the first time that we lost two of our comrades in the struggle against nazis since the revival of a North American network of ARA chapters. We will not stop with the sorrow and the grief about the loss of these precious lives... a fine example of black and white unity... who showed the whole world that anti-racist skinheads are in the forefront of the struggle against fascism.

We express deepest sympathy for the families and extend our support and solidarity to our buddies of ARA-Las Vegas.

We will avenge the lives of Dan and Spit!

Neo-Nazi murder in British Columbia

British Columbia is a haven for racists and fascists these days. On January 4, 1998, that cost Nirmal Singh Gill his life.

The 65-year-old man was the caretaker of a Sikh Temple in Surrey, a suburb of Vancouver. The Temple had been targeted by racists with graffiti throughout the fall of 1997. He had chased away vandals before at the seniors centre connected to the Temple, where he lived.

On January 4, a bunch of boneheads left a late-night party and attacked Mr. Gill. They beat him to death.

Several months later, five men were charged with second-degree murder: Robert Kluch, 24, Radoslaw Synderek, 22, Daniel Adam Miloszewski, 20, Nathan LeBlanc, 25, and one young offender. LeBlanc, a former infantryman at the Canadian Forces Base at Petawawa (near Ottawa) was kicked out of the army just weeks before for having racist literature in his locker.

Fascists getting a foothold in B.C.?

Mr. Gill's murder came at the end of a year of stepped-up racist organizing in the area. The Heritage Front had established a Surrey branch in the fall of 1997, with "Karl Nordstrom" in charge. He turned up in court to support the boneheads and said that he'd met them before at white power concerts. Northern Hammerskins in the white power band "Odin's Law" had played at least two shows that year at the Tynehead Community Centre in Surrey. The first show went unopposed, and the hall manager had no problem renting to them again because, he said, they had cleaned up everything so nicely. An anti-racist protest at the September show wasn't too successful but the hall owner seemed to get the idea and the boneheads haven't been back.

After charges were laid against the boneheads, anti-racists got motivated to take more action. A massive rally against racist attacks was organized in Surrey by Sikh groups and anti-racist allies. The media went crazy and tried to scare people away by reporting that nazis would try to disrupt it. Only days before the demo, cops suddenly told organizers they wouldn't get a permit without shelling out $28,000 to pay for police protection! Organizers didn't pay a cent and the rally was totally successful, but the whole incident shows where police sympathies lie.

Also disturbing were some bizarre attempts to intimidate anti-racist organizers. Over several days, someone taped conversations between activists, police, and government officials both in private offices and in public places. Tapes were then played back on the targets' phones and answering machines. Obviously somebody wanted anti-racists to know that they were being watched—and being watched by folks with some sophisticated technology.

ARA sends our respect and sympathy to the family and friends of Nirmal Singh Gill, and we hope to hear of more grassroots anti-racism work soon. The indifference that's allowing the fash to get a foothold in BC—today's "cowboy capital of KKKanada"—must be challenged!

THE BLACK HOLOCAUST FOR BEGINNERS by S.E. Anderson

The term holocaust to most people stands for the time of nazi-Germany and the destruction of 6 million Jewish lives. But few come to think of the holocaust in which tens of millions of Africans were killed and enslaved, marking the black history from c. 1500 up until 1865, called the black holocaust.

S.E. Anderson states that the killing of these African human beings is the most unclear and most "underreported major event in world history", making his book an excellent source of information.

"The Black Holocaust" explains the roots and development of racism and capitalism and cites them as the causes of this holocaust. With powerful images and divided into five chapters, Anderson tells the simple honest truth about the enslavement, the slaveships, the treatment of both female and male slaves, and in general the conditions under which the Africans "lived".

Anderson concludes with tips and suggestions of what you can do to continue the long fought struggle for the "movement towards freedom" and how to stop and eliminate racism.

THE JEWISH HOLOCAUST FOR BEGINNERS by Stewart Justman

Since World War II all sorts of fascists around the world, including Toronto's own Ernst Zundel have taken the task of denying the Jewish holocaust. The alarming result is the increasing number of young people in North America who have also started to question it.

In a timely manner we welcome this accessible book with photographs, powerful illustrations and objective writing that make it an excellent introduction to the Jewish holocaust. With his simple but powerful style of writing, Justman has managed to show the horror of the elimination of six million European Jews by Hitler's Nazi Germany.

Starting with the chain of events leading to the holocaust, he describes, in a substantive way, the systematic murder of six million people. Justman also shows the role that the language of bureaucratic code-words (i.e. "natural reduction" meaning: death in ghettos or camps by starvation or disease) used by the Nazis played in sanctifying the killing process.

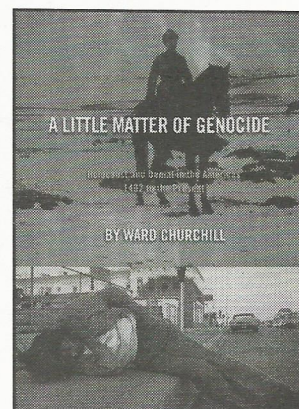

As a conclusion, Justman corrects some common fascist fallacies, such as denying that the Jewish holocaust ever happened.

A LITTLE MATTER OF GENOCIDE by Ward Churchill

As anti-fascists we guard vigilantly against the denial or minimization of the Nazi holocaust against the Jews. In A Little Matter of Genocide, Ward Churchill reminds us of the importance of being vigilant about the denial or minimization of all other genocides that have occurred or continue to occur around the world.

Churchill opens by looking at who present day deniers of the Jewish holocaust are and the impact they have had on dislodging the memory of Nazi terror. Next, Churchill challenges both the ideas that the Nazi holocaust of Jewish people is the only holocaust that has happened and that it is unique in scale and magnitude. As evidence, Churchill details the extent of the Nazi holocaust against Roma and Sinti people (also called Gypsies and other European communities). He cites information about the scale of murder and repression inflicted on indigenous North America. In a particularly interesting chapter, Churchill questions why so many European nationalities fight to claim Columbus as their own, especially given Columbus' role in deliberately ordering the genocide of indigenous Nations, which is detailed by Churchill.

Later into the book, Churchill looks at the manner in which the holocaust against indigenous North America is continuing in the post WWII period. Knowing that we must never forget, A Little Matter of Genocide is a good book to help North American anti-fascists remember the ongoing genocide occurring in our own backyard. It is also a reminder that fighting racism and genocide is not over until all genocides are confronted and defeated.

Yo waz up...this is the rat boy in the gutter...digging through the dirt in the nazi sewers!

Hope all this helps to shed some light on the BS on this side of the gutter, enlighten some minds who still think nazis are the shit, especially those who pump dollars into the defense of Zundel and his ilk.

I have to admit that these days I am preoccupied with Z, our man without the neck. As you know, he is going through a crisis or two... let's put it this way... personally and politically. Politics is not my cup of tea... but how about if I share some deep down personal garbage about the Z camp? Analysis and all that shit is purely yours!

Some time ago I was passing by Carlton and Parliament where the big bunker is located. Two paramedic dudes were outside the Z house and for a moment I thought the Fuhrer might have hit the bucket given all the stress he's been going through. With a smile i decided to "dig in". Unfortunately it was not like that, but hey—the story is worth reporting.

It was a case of Viagra overdose on Zundel's part. Humm...what the fuck is going on? Well...some of the staff at the bunker were glad to help me out with the news.

Z is an Old Ladies' man. He likes to satisfy quite old ladies, especially rich ones... as a way of subsidizing his cause. For a long time, he was the side kick for a 70s approaching 80 year old lady named Ann Burton. A rich woman, i should say.

Then he had something going on with Lorna Houston. Do you remember her? Here's a refresher... back in 1995 during the Municipal elections, she was the one who posed as a nice citizen candidate hiding her well bedridden connections nazis in town. Congratulations to you anti-fascist fuckers... you smelled her right and screwed up her election campaign!

The nice part was when Z dumped Lorna for Irene, Lorna went berserk. She did what all nazis do when they have a beef with each other. Lorna went to the so-called ZOG and had a very long conversation with a Metro cop with all-out info about Z. It's fair to say that's how the pigs know even the colour of his undies! I told you several times how much Ernie likes stool-pigeons! Fucking guy has a fetish for cops, to the sorrow of some bad asses around him.

As I reported in the last issue, Z was in an off the record relationship with another corpse, namely Ingrid Rimland, for longer than I care to remember. Now here is a classic case of historical revisionism. Not only do they revise history and write out the carnages they are responsible for (all to justify nazi ideology)—but they also revise themselves physically! I mean physically to the extreme!

Ingrid is the 62 year old living dead located in California to appease the authorities here by taking the rap for Z's crimes in Canada, so he can get away from those laws and shit. So Z is Ingrid's sugar daddy, cause service doesn't come without a price.

But Ingrid is not Ingrid. None other than Sara Rimlander. First came the name change and then the face change. This is how revisionism works: Z decided to channel all his supporters' dollars to spot a well-deserved face-lift for Ingrid. Just last year, she got the service of a plasticsmith to completely change her face. Ingrid's idea was to look younger to get at Irene, who is 20 years younger. I know that he's a photo re-toucher by trade... well, maybe he can do it to pictures but real flesh is another story! I think the surgeon had an enormous task ahead and did his best. He smashed her cheekbones, screwed some teeth into her skull in a Frankenstein fashion, and lifted the left eye one inch above the right one. Good fucking job. There are some things you can revise, but some things—never man! There is a saying "somethings never change". Well things can change... in this case like a flattened skunk on the HWY 401. This is how the mind set of world class revisionists work. So, all the dickheads who send $ to Zundel in the name of German Pride can roll their cheques and stick them in their pooh-holes for a change!

Let's finish the story with another irony. Ingrid has a 40 year old son, Irwin, who is wrongly institutionalized for having an IQ of a 10 year old. Well...Ingrid wanted Z to hang a "Zundel sock" in the bunker, for all his staff to pour their change. Then when the sock was good and fat, it would be shipped to Irwin. Jürgen Neumann thought this was BS, diverting $ from the movement. Well, Z knows better, and a fan of Hitler after all, the biggest murderer of disabled kids of all time. He advised to Ingrid to put a pillow in Irwin's face and finish her own son. At this age Ingrid should be careful 'cause Ernie could use a pillow on her if he gets a "bad" side-effect for the over-consumption of Viagra. My advice to Ingrid is why not contact Floyd Cochrane, the former heavy of the Aryan Nations and check why he left the creeps and became a fighter against nazis!

Hey...you....

Thanx for that letter with valuable info and shit. Can we hook-up? We can dig deep into this without even letting our shadows know about it. Give us a ring!

As usual we spared the last bit of our rag for big time losers in the fash scene. Let's start with one from our own backyard, Toronto. A character named "Irish" has made a few marks in the downtown core lately. Despite repeated reports that he roams around the "Gay Ghetto" claiming to be a gay nazi and getting quite a reputation in Boystown, we could not grapple with the oxymoron of being a fash and "boy" at the same time. However, he seemed to take himself seriously and was making some ruckus with street kids and claiming to be the next in line for the role of "street tough" in the already dead street nazi scene in Toronto.

Well things changed a bit lately. We heard that he was pushing for a big show when the Scarborough boneheads went to court on September 23, to defend "freedom of speech".

This ugly mug appointed himself to be the spokesperson for the masses of proud nazis—all four of them—who appeared that day to support their heroes. In a way we are happy if he plans on being the leader of the scene here, it will make our work easier. It's just going to be a physical putsch rather than a long-lasting ideological battle. Our only warning to Irish, before things get ugly, is to check with Jesus, a.k.a. Brain Mangioni, why he left town two years! May we suggest that rubbing your chin in the pavement is a cheap way to remove the Celtic Cross on your chin?

Warren Soles was a 20 year youth from St. Catharines, Ontario who once believed in the superiority of his race due to loser-peer pressure. With the false conception that Jewish people control the world, fed him to by his fellow travellers, he took up arms against headstones in a Jewish cemetery last August. Today he is serving a 10 month stint in the joint and decided to shed his past.. for good we guess. He especially wants us to send an open message to one of his past mates in the bonehead scene in Niagara Region. Well, here you go, Andy Appollonio!!

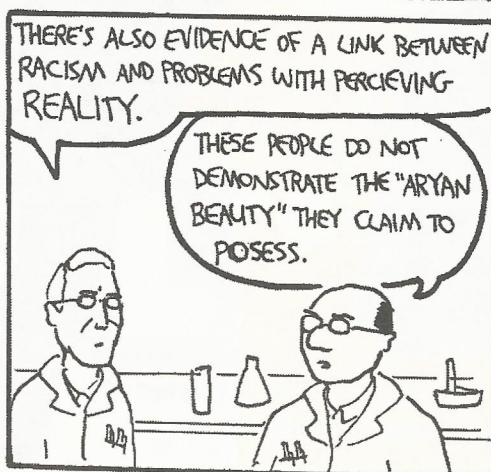

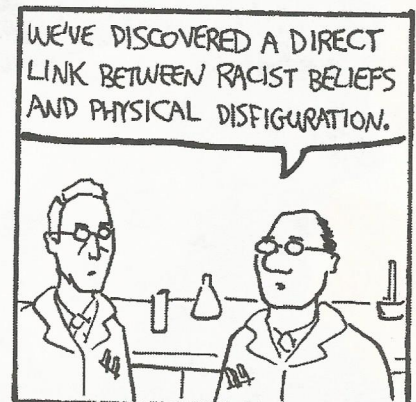

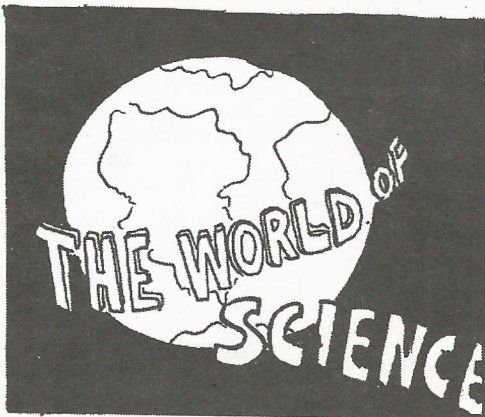

Sept. 18/98

Hey Andy,

I know what you've said and I personally think you and your wanna be nazi goof friends can screw yourselves. You and your twit friends have the IQ of a five year old. So, where are you now hiding behind your computer? I have never been scared of you or your scumbag wanna be (nazi) skinhead friends, so you can go screw your satan worshipping self and I hope you all rot in hell!

Yours sincerely,
Warren

came together in September 1992, at a time when white supremacist groups were making a bid for mainstream credibility and recruiting white youth as shock troops for their genocidal plans. Since then we have been working in schools, in our neighborhoods, and on the streets to show the strength of our opposition to white supremacy and fascism, as well as our commitment to a multi-racial, multi-cultural, sexually diverse, liberated and fun society. Our basis of unity is: We will expose, oppose & confront organized racism and the far-right agenda, through education, mass action, and support of broader anti-racist struggles.

The ARA-Net is a growing network of more than 120 anti-racist/anti-fascist groups in North America, united by 4 principles:

1. We go where they go. Whenever fascists are organizing or active in public, we're there. We don't believe in ignoring them or staying away from them. Never let the nazis have the streets.

2. Don't rely on the cops or the courts to do our work. This doesn't mean we don't ever go to court. But we must rely on ourselves to protect ourselves and to stop the fascists.

3. Non-sectarian defense of other anti-fascists. In ARA-Net, we have lots of groups and individuals. We don't agree about everything, and we have a right to differ openly. But in this movement an attack on one is an attack on us all. We stand behind each other.

4. ARA-Net intends to do the hard work necessary to build a broad, strong movement against racism, sexism, anti-Semitism, homophobia, discrimination against the disabled, the oldest and the youngest of our people. We intend to win.
